WHO Collaborating Centre

on Population Approaches for Non-Communicable Disease Prevention

Policy revised 10th July 2003, updated 12th August 2015

Funding policy

An aim of the Centre is to influence health promotion policy and practice. This aim might be compromised if the Centre were to accept funding from certain sources.

Therefore the Centre will not accept funding from manufacturers or retailers of:

- a) food and drink
- b) cigarettes
- c) alcoholic drinks
- d) pharmaceuticals and medical equipment
- e) sports equipment
