

Ox-PAQ Update: The quarterly newsletter of the Ox-PAQ Initiative

Welcome to the fifteenth edition of Ox-PAQ Update. News from the last three months is given below:

- The second phase of our e-based survey to assess the sensitivity to change of the Ox-PAQ began in October 2016. To date 209 participants have completed the Ox-PAQ for a second time. This phase will continue until the end of March with a further update in our next newsletter. As ever, our thanks go to the following organisations for their assistance with participant recruitment: British Lung Foundation, Motor Neurone Disease Association, Multiple Sclerosis Society and Parkinson's UK.
- Our second abstract for 2016 was recently presented at the 23rd Annual Conference of the International Society for Quality of Life Research in Copenhagen, Denmark. The abstract has been published in a supplement of the journal Quality of Life Research, and can be found at the following link:

That completes our fifteenth newsletter. We would, as always, be grateful for any feedback you might have. The next edition of Ox-PAQ Update will be posted towards the end of 2017.

Please email David (david.morley@dph.ox.ac.uk) or Crispin (crispin.jenkinson@dph.ox.ac.uk) if you have any specific questions or suggestions regarding the project.

Merry Christmas to all,

The Ox-PAQ Team

21st December, 2016.
