

The Richard Doll Seminars in Public Health and Epidemiology

Hilary Term, Jan to Mar 2013
Tuesdays, 1-2pm

Lecture Theatre, Richard Doll Building, Old Road Campus

- 15th Jan Prof Carol Brayne
Dept of Public Health & Primary Care, University of Cambridge
Dementia in fashion: benefit or harm?
- 22th Jan Prof Rose Anne Kenny
Trinity College Dublin
Comparisons of objective and subjective health measures from TILDA – the longitudinal study of ageing in Ireland
- 29th Jan Prof Richard Hobbs
Dept of Primary Care Health Sciences, University of Oxford
Understanding heart failure: insights from a primary care research programme
- 5th Feb No seminar
- 12th Feb Dr Phil Edwards
London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine
Public health impacts of urban transport
- 19th Feb Prof Paul Ridker
Harvard Medical School
Inflammation and Atherothrombosis: Where have we been? Where are we going?
- 26th Feb Prof Sir Rory Collins & Dr Naomi Allen
Clinical Trial Service Unit and Epidemiological Studies Unit, University of Oxford
The UK Biobank study: an overview and update
- 5th Mar Dr Linda Fitzgerald
St. George's, University of London
Non-Invasive Screening for Fluctuations in Immune Resilience
-

All welcome

Seminar Organisers: Dexter Canoy, Lucy Wright and Fiona Bragg

Email: rdseminars@ctsu.ox.ac.uk

Web: www.ceu.ox.ac.uk/seminars

Twitter: twitter.com/rdseminars