

The Richard Doll Seminars in Public Health and Epidemiology

Nuffield Department of Population Health, University of Oxford

Trinity Term (May to June) 2019 at 1-2pm

Please note change of venue: Big Data Institute, Seminar rooms 0 and 1, Old Road Campus

-
-
- | | |
|-----------------------|--|
| 7 th May | Professor David Leon
London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine
Life expectancy and cardiovascular disease in Russia. New insights and outstanding issues. |
| 14 th May | Associate Professor Kazem Rahimi
University of Oxford
Intensive blood pressure lowering in multimorbid patients: too much of a good thing? |
| 21 st May | Professor Caroline Relton
University of Bristol
DNA methylation and disease risk |
| 28 th May | Zoe Mullan
Lancet Global Health
Are journals an endangered species? |
| 4 th June | Professor Hazel Inskip
University of Southampton
Preconception health: what, why, how, when and for whom? |
| 11 th June | Dr George Busby, Isaac Ghinai
University of Oxford
The Mobile Malaria Project |
| 18 th June | Professor Emanuele Di Angelantonio
University of Cambridge
Some contemporary insights into cardio-vascular risk |
-
-

All welcome

Conveners: Julie Schmidt, Louisa Gnatiuc and David Preiss

Email: rdseminars@ndph.ox.ac.uk; Web: www.ndph.ox.ac.uk/upcoming-events Twitter: twitter.com/rdseminars